

I enjoy k-love music station. It is positive and encouraging, and it lifts me up when I listen to the station. I would be very upset if LPFM were to replace K-Love. I know many people would be affected by it as well because many like myself are edified by K-LOVE with its positive and encouraging message.